TTYP: WHAT IS LOGICAL ~~REASOING~~?

Logical reasoning is...

THE PROCESS OF IDENTIFYING A PROBLEM, MAKING PREDICTIONS AND FINDING SOLUTIONS.

WE ALL USE LOGICAL REASONING EVERY DAY WITHOUT REALISING IT.

YOU WILL USE LOGICAL REASONING TO CROSS THE ROAD SAFELY, DO YOUR HOMEWORK AND TO PLAY CHES

COMPUTER PROGRAMMERS USE LOGICAL REASONING BECAUSE COMPUTERS DO NOT CHANGE.

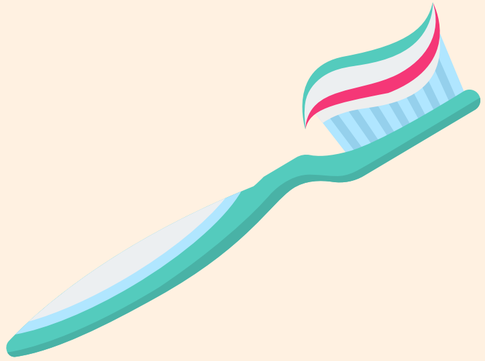

THEY WILL REPEAT THE SAME ACTION PERFECTLY, MAKING THEM PREDICTABLE

LET'S APPLY LOGICAL REASONING TO A ~~PROBLEM~~

TTYP: How do you brush your teeh?

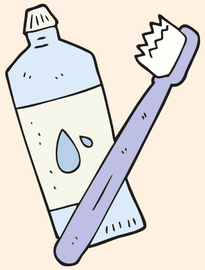

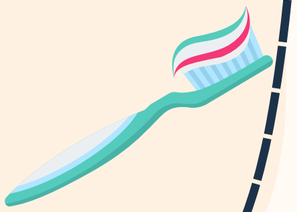

The logical solution is simple

1) TAKE YOUR TOOTHBRUSH AND TOOTHPASTE

2) PUT A LITTLE BIT OF PASTE ON THE BRUSH

3) BRUSH YOUR TEETH FOR 2 MINUTES

4) RINSE YOUR MOUTH WITH WATER

This can be shown in a flowchart

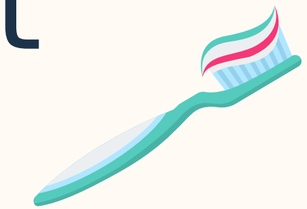

TTYP:

WHAT DO YOU NOTICE ABOUT THE FLOWCHART?

HOW DOES IT START/END?

HOW ARE THE SHAPES CONNECTED?

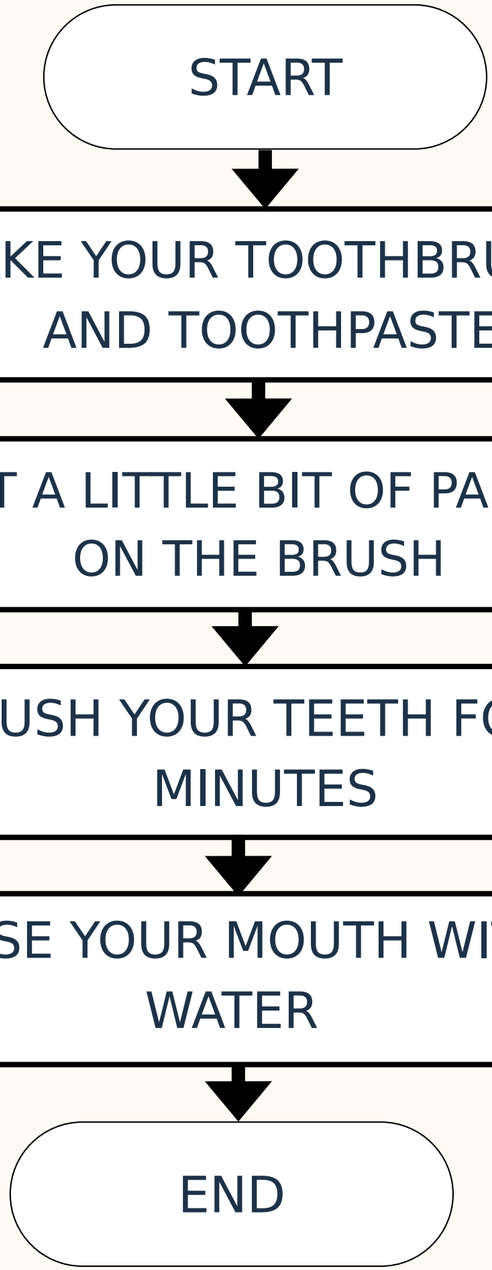

WHICH DIRECTION DOES THE CHART MOVE?

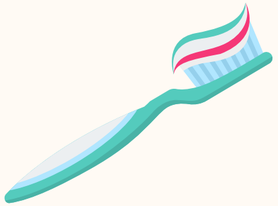

What is a flowchart?

A flowchart is a way of visually displaying a set of instructions (or an algorithm) for any particular task.

Flowcharts have many uses and are one way of showing the sequence of instructions for an automatic computer system.
