WALT: Use an increasing range of modal forms. Give a sequence of instructions.

Starter – Correct these sentences

We need to do sports to keep fit.

You should be happy because you will make friends.

You must be very healthy.

WALT: Use an increasing range of modal forms. Give a sequence of instructions.

What is the difference between advice and instructions?

Advice is guidance or recommendations.

Instructions are directions or orders.

WALT: Use an increasing range of modal forms. Give a sequence of instructions.

When we give advice we use “should”

Example: You should do your homework the day you get it.

You don't have to do your homework the day you get it, but it would be a good idea because then its out the way and you wont forget about it.

WALT: Use an increasing range of modal forms. Give a sequence of instructions.

When we give instructions we use “must” or “need”.

Example: You must do your homework before Friday.
You need to do you homework before Friday.

This is a rule. You have to do it.

WALT: Use an increasing range of modal forms. Give a sequence of instructions.

Modal Verbs

Modal verbs are verbs that indicate likelihood, ability, permission or obligation.

can/could may/might will/would shall/should must

The sea monster should go away.

In this sentence 'should' is the modal verb as it indicates the likelihood of the sea monster going away.
