

Grammar Patterns

Verb + Direct Object + Indirect Object

Name: _____

Date: _____

Quick Grammar Reminder:

- Verb (V): The action word.
 - Direct Object (DO): Answers "What?" or "Whom?" after the verb.
 - Indirect Object (IO): Answers "To whom?" or "For whom?" after the verb.
-

Activity 1: Object Detectives

Instructions: Read the sentences below. Underline the Verb (V), circle the Direct Object (DO), and put a box around the Indirect Object (IO).

Example: The teacher showed [the students] (the presentation).

1. Liam lent his classmate a pencil.
 2. Maya bought her mother a beautiful scarf.
 3. The coach handed the team a new soccer ball.
 4. Mr. David taught us a difficult grammar lesson yesterday.
 5. They sent their grandparents a postcard from London.
-

Activity 2: Sentence Transformer

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence by changing its structure. Switch the positions of the Direct Object and Indirect Object. Remember to add "to" or "for" where necessary!

Example: I bought my brother a book. → I bought a book for my brother.

1. Lucas poured a glass of juice for his sister.

→ _____

2. The chef cooked a delicious meal for the guests.

→ _____

3. Sarah gave her friend the secret passcode.

→ _____

4. The guide showed the tourists the ancient castle.

→ _____

5. I made a birthday card for my best friend.

→ _____