English

Unit 3 – Living Things

Wednesday 14th October 2026

WALT:

Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

WALT:
Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Homework

ESL – workbook 3.1 and 3.2

Maths – workbook pages 37 – 42.

Due Friday 23rd October 2026

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

I can identify if a sentence is written in the active or passive voice.

I can convert sentences between the active and passive voice.

I can write my own sentences in the active and passive voice.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Retrieval Practice

STUDENT RUNNING CLUB

The club meets at the (0) ……football stadium…… in the town.

Last year's members will be sent a registration form by (6) …… .

Members who pay $5 receive a special (7) …… that shows the club's name.

All runners will get a (8) …… as a free gift.

You know the runner's level of experience by the colour of their (9) …… .

Contract Carol (10) …… on 8302195.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Starter – Find and fix the mistakes in these sentences.

My brother watchs TV.

I runs every day.

My mum drink coffee at breakfast.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Starter – Find and fix the mistakes in these sentences.

My brother watches TV.

I run every day.

My mum drinks coffee at breakfast.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Present Simple Tense

We can use the present simple tense to talk about things that are always true such as the life cycles of animals.

E.g. The babies are a month old now. Soon they start to feed themselves.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Active and Passive Present Simple Tense

In the active voice the subject is the person doing the action.

E.g. Ms. Colette drives a motorbike.

In the passive voice the subject is the receiver of the action. We use it when we can't, don't want to or don't need to say who does the action.

E.g. A motorbike is driven by Ms. Colette.

A motorbike is driven.

Past Participle

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Active vs Passive Present Simple Tense

Let’s write an active voice sentence together.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Check your understanding.

Write these active voice sentences in the passive voice:

Penguins eat fish. Fish are eaten by penguins.

Penguins protect their eggs. Eggs are protected by penguins.

Write these passive voice sentences in the active voice:

Eggs are laid by the female. Females lay eggs.

The ice is warmed by the sun. The sun warms the ice.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Decide whether these sentences have been written in the active or the passive voice. The first one has been done for you.

The bananas are eaten	Passive
I eat bananas.
A Honda car was bought by me.
The strawberry pie was eaten by my mum.
Alex reads books.

Complete the table converting the sentences from the passive voice to the active voice and vice versa.

Active Voice	Passive Voice
Jon writes poems.	Poems are written by Jon.
They play football.
	Books are read by students.
Lions don't eat vegetables.
	Portuguese is not spoken by Danes.

Active Voice	Passive Voice

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Decide whether these sentences have been written in the active or the passive voice. The first one has been done for you.

The bananas are eaten	Passive
I eat bananas.	Active
A Honda car was bought by me.	Passive
The strawberry pie was eaten by my mum.	Passive
Alex reads books.	Active

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

Complete the table converting the sentences from the passive voice to the active voice and vice versa.

Active Voice	Passive Voice
Jon writes poems.	Poems are written by Jon.
They play football.	Football is played by them.
Students read books.	Books are read by students.
Lions don't eat vegetables.	Vegetables are not eaten by lions.
Danes don't speak Portuguese.	Portuguese is not spoken by Danes.

WALT: Use a range of present simple active forms and begin to use passive forms.

I can identify if a sentence is written in the active or passive voice.

I can convert sentences between the active and passive voice.

I can write my own sentences in the active and passive voice.