

Grammar Patterns

Verb + Object + Infinitive

Quick Grammar Reminder:

We use this pattern when one person wants, tells, or helps another person to do an action.

- Pattern: Subject + Verb + Object + Infinitive (with 'to')
- Example: The teacher reminded us to finish our homework.
- Common verbs: ask, want, tell, remind, advise, allow, invite, help.

Activity 1: Sentence Unscramble

Instructions: Put the words in the correct order to make a proper sentence. Look at the example first.

Example: her / to clean / told / bedroom / Lucas / his mom

→ Lucas's mom told him to clean his bedroom.

1. to study / advised / the students / for the test / Mr. Green

→ _____

2. asked / her brother / Sarah / to lend / his bike / her

→ _____

3. to join / invited / they / the science club / us

→ _____

4. our project / our parents / wanted / to win / us / the competition

→ _____

5. the coach / to practice / reminded / every day / the team

→ _____

Activity 2: The Advice Column

Instructions: Read the situations below. Use the words in the brackets [] to write a helpful sentence using the verb + object + infinitive structure.

Example: Tom has a bad toothache. [His dad / advise / him / see a dentist]

→ His dad advised him to see a dentist.

1. Anna's room is completely messy. [Her mother / tell / her / tidy up]

→ _____

2. Ben cannot carry the heavy school box. [The teacher / help / him / lift it] (Try using 'to')

→ _____

3. The children want to go to the park, but it is raining. [Their father / not allow / them / play outside]

→ _____

4. It is midnight and the music is very loud next door. [We / ask / our neighbors / turn it down]

→ _____

5. Maya wants to get better at playing the piano. [Her instructor / encourage / her / practice scales]

→ _____