Retrieval Practice

There were some difficult moments for the young cooks. When they were baking cakes, one boy put in salt instead of sugar. Another time, when they had to work in the kitchen of a real restaurant, the members of one team couldn't agree. And when they had to boil a perfect egg without a clock, all the teams had problems.

Dara's team didn't win the competition, but he says he doesn't mind. 'I don't think the competition helped me become a better cook, but I'm still glad I entered. The Cook It kitchen was amazing. It was so modern. But the best thing for me was making so many new friends. That was great!'

28 What was a problem for everyone in the competition?

- A working in a real kitchen
- B boiling a perfect egg
- C making a cake

29 Dara says the thing he liked most about the competition was
