

English

Unit 1 - My World

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

I can recognise
the present
perfect tense.

I can change
sentences to the present perfect
tense.

I can write sentences in the
present perfect
tense.

Retrieval Practice - complete the Frayer model with one of the emotions.

happy

nervous

angry

scared

excited

interested

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Starter - Have you ever felt...? When? What about?

Use some the emotions we have discussed to ask your partner the question above.

A: Have you ever felt really excited?

B: Yes, I have.

A: When?

B: Last year.

A: What about?

B: My holiday to India.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Today we are looking at the present perfect tense.

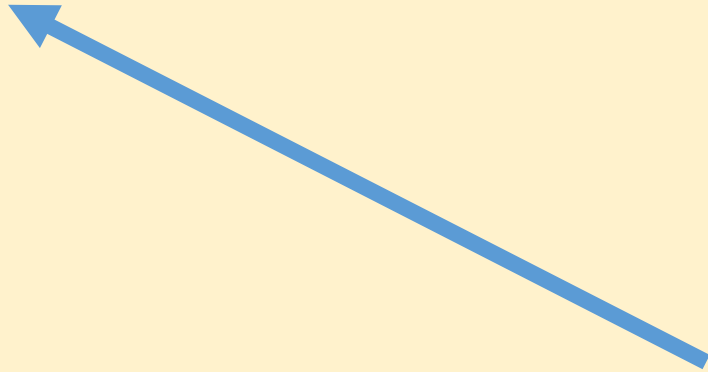

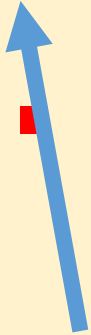

We use the present perfect tense to describe events in the recent past, when the time of the event is not important.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

I have been on holiday to Bali.

have / has

past participle

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

I have went on holiday to Bali.

Why would I not use 'went' in this sentence?

Because the present perfect needs the past participle not the past simple verb.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Thinking of emotions, what sentences could we say using the present perfect tense?

Remember: have/has + past participle

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Check your understanding

Which sentences are in the present perfect tense?

She has never experienced such an intense excitement until starting her new job.

Mr. Charlie loves to play golf on the weekend.

I was nervous to start Grade 5 because of the Checkpoints.

I have drawn a sunflower as it makes me feel warm inside

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Which sentences are in the present perfect tense?

She has never experienced such an intense excitement until starting her new job.

Mr. Charlie loves to play golf on the weekend.

I was nervous to start Grade 5 because of the Checkpoints.

I have drawn a sunflower as it makes me feel warm inside

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

How could I change this sentence into the present perfect tense?

Mr. Charlie loves to play golf on the weekend.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Check your understanding

How could I change this sentence into the present perfect tense?

I was nervous to start Grade 5 because of the Checkpoints.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Have you ever...?

I have never...

They have never...

We have never...

He has never...

She has never...

Ms. Colette has

I have ...

They have ...

We have ...

He has ...

She has ...

Ms. Colette has ...

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Check your understanding!

Which of the sentences is written in the present perfect tense?

- a) He went to Thailand.
- b) She has eaten her breakfast already.

Which word should go in the gaps in these sentences?

a) He _____ been there before.

b) I've _____ that movie before.

Say a sentence to your partner in the present perfect form.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Check your understanding!

Which of the sentences is written in the present perfect tense?

a) He went to Thailand.

b) She has eaten her breakfast already.

Which word should go in the gaps in these sentences?

has

seen

a) He _____ been there before.

b) I've _____ that movie before.

Say a sentence to your partner in the present perfect form.

Give your partner some feedback on their sentence.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Your Task

In your notebook copy down the sentences written in the present perfect tense.

- a) Have you ever ridden a horse?
- b) I have never climbed a tree.
- c) I wrote that I felt sad.
- d) She has watched all the Star Wars films.

Change the sentences to make them the present perfect tense.

- e) She visited Paris twice to see the Mona Lisa.
- f) They finished their project on children's emotions in Grade 5.
- g) Ms. Colette went on holiday to Cambodia to see Angkor Wat.
- h) I am worried because I lost my keys.

Write 4 sentences of your own using the present perfect tense.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

I can recognise
the present
perfect tense.

I can change
sentences to the
present perfect
tense.

I can write
sentences in the
present perfect
tense.

WALT: Use present perfect forms to express recent, indefinite and unfinished past.

Plenary - What is wrong with this sentence?

I have listened to that song last week.