WALT: Use collective nouns.

When we have a group of animals we use a collective noun to refer to them.

Examples:

Pack of wolves.

Flock of birds.

School of fish.

Herd of cows.

Do you know any other collective nouns?

WALT: Use collective nouns.

When we use collective nouns we need to remember that although we are referring to multiple animals the group is singular.

This means you need to use the singular form of the verb.

Example:

The colony of penguins was huge.

NOT

The colony of penguins were huge.

WALT: Use collective nouns.

We can also use collective nouns to refer to groups of objects.

Examples:

Bouquet of flowers.

Batch of cookies.

Fleet of ships.

Archipelago of islands.

Deck of cards.
